

Expulsion: 40 Years On

The South Asian East African Community In Britain

Join us to commemorate the Exodus

Enjoy performances of dance and storytelling, and come along to taste some of Hansa's culinary delights

Image Accreditation: Daily Herald archive/SSP

Saturday 14th July 2012, 12pm

Arena, Leeds City Museum

Millennium Square, Leeds, LS2 8BH

Admission Free UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

Programme

A day of interactive cultural and arts performances to mark the 40th anniversary of Idi Amin's expulsion of the South Asian community from Uganda

12.00pm

Drop in Sessions:

Jambo! Event Opening

Hansa's Restaurant: A taste of double migration

Dandiya: A stick folk dance from Gujarat, played in East Africa

Interactive Audience Workshop with Dandiya

Storytelling: Peter Chand

Interactive Audience Workshop with Peter Chand

Garba: A clapping folk dance from Gujarat, played in East Africa

Interactive Audience Workshop with Garba

Storytelling: Peter Chand

2.30pm

Interactive Audience Workshop with Peter Chand

SHORT BREAK

3.00pm

Nowhere to Belong* by Yasmin Alibhai-Brown

This performance, based on Alibhai-Brown's migration experience and love of Shakespeare, is a ticketed, closed door event, suitable for an adult audience. For complimentary tickets book online at www.expulsion.eventbrite.co.uk or call 0113 2243728. Performance ends at 4.00pm.

Please also browse our stalls. Exhibiting are the Leeds Museum Discovery Centre, City of Sanctuary, South Asian Arts UK, Hansa's Restaurant and Community Archives.

Saturday 14th July 2012

www.expulsion40yearson.com

Arena, Leeds City Museum

Millennium Square, Leeds, LS2 8BH

Admission Free UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS